

ENG 4618: Harlem Renaissance

F. Scott Fitzgerald called the years between the wars the "Jazz Age." Folks uptown recognized that a Renaissance was happening in Harlem. Students will study major works by African Americans written during the 1920s and 1930s."

Credits: 3.0

Program: English