

CHM 1000: Professional Development Sem

Professional development course for Chemistry and Biochemistry juniors and seniors. Visiting speakers and in-class workshops expose students to available career paths and research areas, build their professional network, and develop related skills, e.g., communication and personal statement writing.

Credits: 1.0

Program: Department Chemistry and Biochemistry