

COM 3302: Advanced Film & Video Prod

Visual aspects of location single camera video productions, audio acquisition, lighting, post production support, video editing and digital effects and finished distribution. Each student will work as producer, director, cameraman, editor and writer. Helps students understand the world of film and video funding, production and distribution.

Credits: 3.0

Prerequisites:

COM 3301

COM 3301

Program: Communication