

Summer Sessions

Summer sessions at Villanova are designed to assist CPS students and students from across the University as well as visitors in fulfilling their academic needs through a variety of courses offered each summer.

Summer sessions run two four-week sessions, and one eight-week session, and follow the dates specified on the University Academic Calendar.