

ENG 2994: Reading and Community

Studying the kind of reading that takes place outside of the classroom in book groups and community reads, this course practices reading in community while studying hot new books selected by students in the course.

Credits: 1

Program: English