

EDU 2300: Research Seminar in Education

An opportunity for students to become acquainted with the various approaches to inquiry in educational research and to design a small scale research project. Students will learn how to locate, analyze and use both qualitative and quantitative research reports.

Credits: 3.0

Program: Education