

Honors Program

The Honors Program at Villanova brings together students with strong academic records and dedicated faculty members in challenging seminars that promote diversity and depth of learning.

For information regarding to the business honors degree, please refer to the Baccalaureate Degree Requirements section for the detailed information.