

LTX 3227: International Tax Sem

Prerequisites: U.S. Taxation of International Business Operations or significant experience in the topic area. Course coverage is at the discretion of the instructor. In general, the topics will highlight matters such as current issues involving the outbound investment of U.S. capital and inbound investment of foreign capital allocation of expenses in calculating the foreign tax credit, funding multinational corporations, and in-depth consideration of treaty applications.

Credits: 2.0

Co-Requisites:

LTX 2101