

EMB 1024: Global Strategic Management

International issues faced by general managers in formulating and implementing global strategy: country and region specific issues in strategy formulation and implementation, international mergers and acquisitions, and international marketing. International human resources management: intellectual capital management and organization development (including eLearning approaches) across countries and cultures.

Credits: 3.0