

MAC 8286: Ldrshp for the New Acctg Prof

Focuses on the leadership skills and mindset necessary for success in professional accounting. Explores the concept of self-leadership as the foundation for team, business, and strategic leadership. Develops self-awareness and self-discipline, promotes a global view, and offers leadership coaching and tips from the executive leader perspective. Provides practice in teaming, networking, communication skills, problem-solving, and professional presence through group activities and presentations.

Credits: 1.5