

PCA 0100: Ignite Change InYour Community

Identify and articulate your strengths and values as you you learn how to become a more self-aware and emotionally intelligent individual. Use these skills to develop a personal and professional vision of yourself as a leader while you develop a leadership plan to positively impact your relationships and your high school community.

Credits: 0.6