

CSC 8410: Operating Systems Concepts

Principles and techniques required for creating and understanding operating systems, including the areas of: system services, concurrent programming, process and resource control; deadlock detection, recovery, and prevention; memory management; file systems; and protection and security.

Credits: 3.0

Prerequisites:

CSC 8400 :Y :C

Program: Computing Sciences