

LAW 7038: Law and Psychology

Instruction with a forensic psychologist. Describes relevant law, science, psychology and practice related to important issues in mental health law as well as other issues of behavioral sciences and the law. Encompasses criminal and civil law. Principal course requirement is a three-hour final examination. This course is offered on an every other year basis. Exam Info: Exam administered during exam period.

Credits: 2.0