

HDI 7020: Economic Forces & Policy

HDI 7020 Economic Forces & Policy Shaping Healthcare This course provides an examination of health as a durable good. Course content includes basic economic theory, market drivers, healthcare financing and reimbursement, and cost/benefit analysis. Interplay among local, state, federal and global structures and processes, and the role of major policy policy formulation will be examined.

Credits: 1.6