

ECE 8450: Design of Secure Comput System

This course examines common low-level software vulnerabilities that take advantage of current system architectures. Mitigation strategies at the software level and the system level will be discussed and analyzed

Credits: 3.0

Prerequisites:

Program: Electrical and Computer Engineering