

HHMA 2050: Intro to Health Humanities

Concepts in medicine such as health and illness, explore through approaches from literature, visual arts and communication theory, among others. Skills to be cultivated: critical thinking, observation, empathy, and self-reflection Faculty guest lecturers from medicine, nursing, and the arts included

Credits: 3.0