

GEV 3550: Natural Hazards

Processes determining physical risk, societal vulnerability, and response to major hazards including: blizzards, tornadoes, hurricanes, drought, flooding, earthquakes, volcanoes, landslides, avalanches, and wildfires.

Credits: 3.0

Program: Geography and the Environment